FROM THE SENESCHAL

Unto the populace of Artemisia does Baroness Agnese Canigiano send greetings!

As most of you know by now, I have succeeded Mistress frisha as Artemisian Seneschal. I would like to thank her for many months of work on behalf of our Kingdom, and for her assistance in the transition process.

I believe my primary responsibility to the populace is to clarify issues of law and policy as they relate to maintaining our groups and officers, and to organize our calendar. If you have questions at any time regarding the requirements of holding office, safeguarding or changing your group's status, or event scheduling please do not hesitate to ask.

I know that the "zip code issue" is paramount in the minds of many Artemisians. AEthelmearc is experiencing the same problems we are. I have been in contact with the Society Seneschal. The problem involves a software change for the Registry, which is in the testing phase, and should roll out in February. We are working on a temporary fix with the Chroniclers of Atenveldt and Artemisia to reroute newsletters.

Many of you have access to the "Web". In the coming months, I hope to make use of the Seneschal's section of the Artemisian Home Page to relay helpful information, and late breaking issues.

Generally speaking, 9 to 10 PM is the best time to reach me at home. By the time you read this missive, our second child will have been born. As I write this, I cannot know how this will affect my office hours. For the next several months phone communications will need to be flexible. I am also reachable by E-mail at tryggvi@xmission.com. Please let me know how I can serve you.

FROM THE GOLDEN WING PRINCIPAL HERALD

Greetings Artemisians,

Well Coronation was fantastic. Doomsday's are a pain. And Life in these Current Middle Ages is good.

Just to let you all know, the Doomsday's have flooded in and the office files and books have been transferred to Shauna and I, thanks Kelwin.

We will begin an audit of the submissions files ASAP. Those of you who don't know about your submissions status, inform your local herald and they will let us know. So we can keep an eye out for them.

At this time I am also placing a call for letters of intent for a Drop-Dead Deputy for this office. If you are interested in drop-deading Shauna as a submissions herald please send a letter as well. Letters will be due by no later than 31 March 1998. Letters must be sent to: Mistress Agnese, Myself, TRM John and Alyna. By snail mail please.

I would also like to Congratulate our new Peers Balin, Jurgen, and Iduna. Lord Victor on his premiership, and Sir Gareth our premier Lion. To Mistress Shauna, Master Don Niccolo, Master Edward, ChuFu Yin Mei Lei, Lady Annys, m'lady Tarimaat. My heartfelt thanks for your assistance in Court, Field, and the Consultation Table.

Until next I remain,
In service unto you and our dream,
Lord Sionainn Padraig Caimbeul
Golden Wing Principal Herald

THE BLACK WING COMPANY

Greetings Artemisia. I am known as Lord Tarkash, and I have recently been given the honor of serving the Black Wing Company as Captain-General, following Don Gruffydd ap Llewellyn, who, having led our company for the past three years, has stepped down as our commander. I hope I may serve you as well as he.

My first order of business is to thank Duke Sir Thorfinn & Duchess Sarah for entering our Kingdom into the White Scarf Treaty. Thank you both so very much. It means a lot to the members of this Kingdom involved with the art of rapier.

Second, I would like to express my joy & happiness to the fact that Master Niccolo was the first to be awarded this honor in our new Kingdom. Vivat my friend.

Third, Congratulations to Lord Christian de Launey, the Kingdom's first rapier champion and first Defender of the Sable Rose.

I would also like to take this opportunity to explain a little bit about what the Black Wing Company is and who we are. It seems a great many misconceptions have developed over the past few years and I hope to clarify them a bit.

We exist to encourage rapier combat, as practiced in Europe during the time of Elizabeth I and Cardinal Richelieu, within the Kingdom of Artemisia. This does not mean your persona cannot be from another time, only the style of fighting. (The earliest documentation I've seen for fencing has been a piece dated 1435)

We fight not for victory, but for the Honor of the Queen, the glory of Artemisia and the joy of combat. Yes, winning is nice, but the conduct we display, the honor on and off the field that we try to hold ourselves to, reflect on us, our Kingdom and most of all our Queen. Traditionally the rapier fighters have always stood for the Princess, and now we hope to do the same for the Queen, if she is so willing.

The company is open to ALL those individuals who have an interest in rapier combat or the associated history and culture of the period. We are an open group, you do not need to be asked to join, if you are interested, simply find one of our members and express your interest or contact me. It's that simple.

We are not a household or a splinter group or guild. We support one another in this game we play. We offer teaching, guidance, camaraderie and recognition. We are a rapier company which wishes to serve the Kingdom to our best ability, as active and involved members of Artemisia.

This should be a very exciting year for the Company. We have a number of things planned, including a company encampment at Uprising this year, a company newsletter (if you would like a copy,please contact me.) and a whole lot more.

Now if I may, I need information. I would ask that all members and those wishing to be a part of the company please contact me and provide the following information, and spread the word to others that I need this information. It's the only way I can get updated on current rankings, numbers, and information of our company.

1) Name, Mundane & persona 2) Location, address
3) Phone or E-mail 4).Membership & authorization numbers.

Please send to:
Lord Tarkash
4075 Jefferson Ave.
Ogden, UT 84403
(801) 621-3134
E-Mail TEARLGRA@aol.com

Yours in service,
Lord Tarkash,
Captain-General, Black Wing Company

HORSEY CORNER

KNIGHTS OF THE EQUESTRIAN TOURNEY

As the equestrian tournament flourished, precursor to our modern day circus or rodeo, this magnificent spectator sport began to lose touch with military reality. A knight's greatest dangers during these "martial" competitions were a head-on clash between two galloping horses or a smashed knee should he pass too close to his opponent.

Because knights didn't look good limping, the "tilt" was devised to keep the horses apart and prevent nasty accidents from occurring. In the beginning, a simple rope was used to divide the length of the arena. Since the rope provided minimal protection as well as dangers of its own, a stout wooden barrier replaced the rope. Thus the field was divided into two lists.

The tournament took place upon a broad grassy field enclosed at the sides. The grandstands for spectators were outside of the boundaries. Naturally, like all sports in which men compete, it was important that women be among the spectators.

Each knight, protected by a heavy breastplate and armed with a long lance, lined up at their end. At a signal from the trumpet, the knights gave rein to their palfreys and spurred them into a brisk trot. The pace quickened and they began to gallop down their own side of the tilt-yard so as to pass their opponent left-hand-to-hand. When the two opposing knights came face to face, the impact was quite violent. Still, there was no chance of direct collision, plus the tilt provided the added bonus of preventing hand-to-hand fighting after a knight was unhorsed.

Any knight who was unhorsed by the lance aimed at him by his adversary was declared beaten and was considered to be a prisoner of the man who had unseated him. The winner gleefully took immediate possession of his victim's armor and his horse although the defeated knight might redeem his property by paying a ransom for them.

Even with heavy armor, the tilt, and rules to ensure safety, these contests were far from safe. With the death of Henry II of France, who took a mortal blow from a lance at a tournament held in 1559, which is an interesting story in itself, these types of contests were outlawed. After that, innocuous jousting and carrousels took their place. Thus we come to SCA equestrian combat.

INTERKINGDOM ARCHARY COMPETITIONS

Greetings

There was an error in the scores for the IKCAC. The West now has first place with 221.3 and Ansteorra has second with 220.6.

This also changes the overall standings as well.

My most humble apologies for the error and extra work it may mean for you.

Thank you

Keeper of the IKAC and IKCAC

Greetings my fellow archers from Giovanni dell'Arco, the new Keeper of the IKAC and IKCAC.

As many of you know, Sir Jon Fitz-Rauf has stepped down as the Keeper of the IKAC and IKCAC after 20 years of running the competition. His desire and sacrifices to provide the archers of the Society with an interkingdom competition will never be forgotten.

Except for a slight rewording of the arrow sub-topic under the Period rules and an amendment to the IKCAC crossbow requirements, the IKAC and IKCAC rules are the same as last year. The rules for the XXI IKAC and XI IKCAC can be found on the SCA Archery web site (http://www.pbm.com/~lindahl/archery.html)and on the On Target Online web site (http://members.aol.com/jsatcher/ontarget/ikac.html). Copies of the XXI IKAC and XI IKCAC rules can also be downloaded from On Target Online or obtained directly from the Keeper via e-mail or at the address below. If you reside in the United States, please remember to send a self addressed stamped envelope (business sized) with 35 cents postage for the IKAC rules alone or 55 cents postage for both the IKAC and IKCAC rules. Those residing outside of the United States need only send a self addressed envelope (no stamps).

Effective immediately, please send all IKAC/IKCAC scores, requests and questions to:

Giovanni dell'Arco
c/o J. Satcher
P.O. Box 51220
Seattle, WA 98115-1220
USA
(206) 248-3865 until 10 pm PST
jsatcher@aol.com

The starting date of the IKAC and IKCAC is April 1 and the ending date is December 1. However, to allow for reversed seasons in the Southern Hemisphere, the dates are December 1 to September 1.

Scores MUST be postmarked within 30 days of being shot to be counted as official. The final scores must be received in writing by me no later than December 10. The results of each competition should be sent as soon as possible after they are shot, so they may be tabulated and each month's scores sent out to the Kingdom newsletters. The results MUST include: Name of event, date of event, place of event, Archer-in-Charge's name, AiC's address, AiC's phone number, archers' names, scores by end, round and total, type and weight of bow (recurve, longbow, open/period crossbow) and division. When the division (open, period, crossbow) is not included the score can not be counted. Information must be typed or printed clearly. You should send copies of the scores to me and to your Kingdom archery officer and save a copy for your files in case there is a problem and I need clarification. Scores may be sent by e-mail.

Good shooting!

Also, please remember that Site opens at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday. If you are early, you may be asked to leave until the site officially opens. You will be allowed to drive onto the grass as long as you stay in the fire lane, do not block the lane and Please Remove your Vehicle within 30 minutes. This will allow you time to unload your vehicle before we start getting cranky. We have an area especially set up for trailers to be unhitched and parked so that the trailers will not be taking up good parking spots. I really encourage everyone who is bringing a trailer to assist us with this endeavor. We will also have 2 hay wagons (tractor driven) running throughout the heavy attendance part of the weekend. The hay wagons will be going to the horse arena so that those who wish to observe the equestrian activities will be able to do so.

My main concern with this year is that everyone has a good time. In order for this to happen, everyone needs to volunteer 2 or more hours. The volunteer raffle will prove to be worth the time and your official SCA group earns money. There are a few things that I would like to remind everyone of, however. Please, if you plan on drinking heavy please don't volunteer that day (or night). Enjoy yourself, and volunteer to work later. Those of us who have children have become used to the idea of the Children's Corner. Please help Lord Christophoros with your time or materials. He is very dedicated to the children and his rules do stand with this Autocrat.

Again, I hope everyone has a grand time. After all, its Estrella!

DEFENDER TOURNEY/BARONIAL BIRTHDAY

March 28, 1998 Salt Lake City, UT

Barony of Loch Salann

That Saline Swilling Daemon Decapodia is back again, and he is intent on spoiling Loch Salann's birthday party. On the 28th of March, Their Excellencies James Ulrich and Rachel, Baron and Baroness of Loch Salann call on all available fighters to come and vie for the honor of disposing of The Great Brine Shrimp so that their proud Barony can properly celebrate its birthday.

To decide who is most qualified to slay this beast, there will be a tourney. To be able to overcome the GBS, a fighter must have three important traits: intelligence, leadership, and skill at arms. Using a points system, the victor of the overall tourney shall then go out and slay that stinky shrimp. For the 3 hour tourney round, all fighters will have to bring three weapons forms. With the two consorts of the challengers choosing which form shall be used for that bout. A tourney with the same format shall be run simultaneously for the Rapier Defender of Loch Salann.

UPRISING XIII

Uprising will be June 4th - 7th and the site will open at 2:00 PM on Thursday and close at 4:00 PM on Sunday. Site fee will be the same as last year $15.00 which includes hot showers. The site has moved unfortunately. Boy Scouts of America passed a coporate by-law that no alcohol could be on their sites whether or not it was a Boy Scout function. We did not think having a dry Uprising would work out very well! Anyway, the new site is bigger and has equestrian facilities. It is outside of Idaho Falls on the way to Jackson, WY. The name of the place is Mountain River Ranch and is located on a map right by Heise Hot Springs. By the way, hot springs are 1/2 mile down the road. We are also right on the banks of a river with a great swimming and wading area. The event announcement will be coming out starting in the March Sage Advice. Also there will be an Inn on site run by the owners for lunches and dinners, also a small store selling ice,pop,beer,etc throughout the event.

If you need more specifics please e-mail us!

The problem with advertising

As a 501c3 organization, we're only allowed to advertise things that are essential to our existence (ex. rattan dealers, period fabric & garb, armor, books, etc...). These are IRS regs as well as postal regs. This goes whether there is a value exchange or not.

Another problem is accountability. If we use an advertisement, it appears that we endorse the product. (Actually, that relates back to the first problem in a complex way.) When money or goods are exchanged, the endorsement argument is lessened.

However, local groups may not carry advertising for an exchange. This is due to the complexity of following hundreds of local groups and making sure they are following IRS regs and are reporting their income from advertising, especially when there are still many of them who don't report their Chronicler's office at all. (HINT!) Therefore, an advertisement is more strongly an endorsement, which makes the Society appear responsible for the goods!

Does this seem complicated and yucky yet?

In simpler terms: Don't use advertising on your SCA web page, or in your local newsletter. It would be bad.

In service to the Society and the Dream which keeps us all up to our elbows in ink,

Artemisia's Second Coronation

The Barony of One Thousand Eyes hosted Artemisia's second Coronaion. The day began with the final court of King Thorfinn and Queen Sarah Crown Princess Katerina of Atenveldt brought greetings, and said their kingdom is looking for allies since they are hearing rumors of war. King Thorfinn replied, "You can count on us." Wulf Bjornsson and Inga Eiriksdottir, currently living in [Wyoming] but who travel widely, each received an Award of Arms. King Thorfinn and Queen Sarah then re-established the Pillar of Artemisia as a Kingdom award and made Victor Highgate (DB) its premier. It was announced that Mistress Agnese Canigiano (LS) is now Kingdom Seneschal. Syr Kian hrafn af Dyrnesi (SEK), as Earl Marshal, announce that he has codified Kingdom arms practice, covering all armored combat including rapier; a copy is being sent to each Knight Marshal as Syr Kian receives their Doomsday report. Each branch should begin authorization according to the new rules as soon as they are received. Syr Kian will also be doing authorizations at Estrella and would appreciate help from members of the Chivalry. He also is selling Kingdom stickers. Members of the Order of the White Scarf were called forward. Master Niccolo Genovese (GL) was inducted into the Order, and the members were charged to create an induction ceremony. Gryphon's Hearts were given to HL Katarina Hawkeswood (AH), Sir Ronan of Hereford, Viscountess Courtney, Viscount Gareth, and three others. (Sorry; reporter) Lord Jurgen Von Lowenburg was made a Master of the Laurel, and received the first Kingdom of Artemisia Laurel's medallion. Sir Ronan and Sir Gareth were thanked for having served as Captains of Queen Sarah's Guard. Sir Sean Kirkpatrick Tarragon(LS), as King' Champion, returned the champion's sword to King Thorfinn. The King then said, "The hardest part of reigning is stepping down." As a last act he named Sir Gareth ap Llewellyn a Lion of Artemisia, an order parallel to Atenveldt's Lion. Their Majesties stepped down, divesting themselves of th Royal regalia.

After a short break, Lord Connor MaolDonas (OTE) sang "Burden of the Crown." Their Royal Highnesses John and Alyna were brought forward, under a canopy borne by 4 Pillars of Artemisia, Viscountess Anna, Viscountess Courtney, Master Einendoch of Hostel Haus (AH), and Sir Landolf Witkowski (CoCi). Lord John said, "These crowns represent Artemisia. They are made of precious metals found in these lands, crafted by the skilled hands of Artemisians. But without the people of Artemisia, these are mere bands of metal." He then asked the 4 Pillars to pass the crowns among the populace so that the crowns would be embued with the warmth and love of th populace. The Music Guild of Loch Salann played throughout this time. When the crowns were returned to them, he said, "Now the crowns contain th magic to make the King and Queen of Artemisia." Lady Alyna then crowned him King, by right of arms, and then he crowned her his Queen. The Royal mantles, the chains of estate, and the sword of state were each presented to Their Majesties by their respective makers. As the roll of the lands o Artemisia was read, a banner for each branch was brought forward by someon from that branch. The Barons and Baronesses of Artemisia then swore fealty Then members of each Peerage in turn were asked to stand, and were given a quest. The Knights are asked to seek and teach fighters of the Kingdom. The Laurels are to seek and teach aspiring artisans. The Pelicans are to seek gentles who wish to serve. Then all Peers, Royal Peers, and Officers of the Kingdom were called forward to swear fealty. Any others wishing to do so were invited to join them. Many did. Duke Thorfinn then came forward and offered his sword, hilt first, to King John, who reversed it and accepted the Duke's fealty. Duke Thorfinn and Duchess Sarah were then recognized for their service to Artemisia, and she was made the first Lady of the Rose of Artemisia. The Royal Chatelaine will be Baroness Elizabeth Cameron Campbell. Queen Alyna named Countess Corisande Amina min Baghdad (OTE) as her head Lady-in-Waiting. Her other Ladies are Viscountess Anna Zauberkunstlerin (LS), Viscountess Cerys Bassett (LS), Viscountess Kassandra Eyman (LS), Viscountess Courtney Caesaria Almy (DB), Lady Osondrea De Le Bete (OTE), Lady Anna Elsbeth von Zuberbuhler (OTE), Lady Celeste of Ar Hold, Lady Kortland Stirling Mayfaire (AH), Lady Merryemne of Woolhaven (SK), Lady Morwenna atte Fenix (DB), m'lady Tara Millward, and m'lady Khorhinn. Earl Alan Youngforest was named Captain of the Royal Guard, with Viscount Morgan d'Antioche (AH), Viscount Basil der Dracke (OTE), Viscount Etienne Dupre (AH), Visount Sean Kirkpatrick Tarragon, Viscount Gareth ap Llewellyn (DB), Sir Decker Hawkeswood (AH), Sir Gregory de Bec (LS), Sir Ronan of Hereford (LS), Sir Konrad von Krixen (AH), Master Geoffrey the Procrastinator (OTE), Lord Balin Michael Guiscard (OTE), Lord Aquilla Ashley Maddox (DB), Lady Varia Goffe (LS), Lord Geoffrey Forrester (AF), Lord James Newton Stile (OTE), Lord Uggedei Mighan Nidlun (OTE), Lord Brahim Ibin Kicho (SEK), Lord Wulfgar Kennetson (SK), Lord Dahoud Saamuyel (SEK), Lord Finn Eninar Gilchrist (TL), Mistress Kelwin Ratslayer (AH), Lord Conrad von Zuberbuhler (OTE),m'lord Azir of Arn Hold, continued

Named as Captain of the Rapier Guard was (Lord Vladimere Neopokav (AH). Other members are Don Gruffydd ap Llewellyn (AH), Don Guillaume dela Rupiere (AH), Master Robert the Fletcher (LS), Master Niccolo Gianfigliazzi Genovese, Lord Tarkash (GL), Lord Vilhelm Silverhammer (TL), Lord Christian Fletcher (AH), Lord Sionainn Padraig Caimbeul (GL), Lord Wilhelm von Adlersheim (OTE), Lord Fergus Andrew MacGillreick (AH), Lord Colin Cruaich (OTE), Lord Concholohar Micel an Dona, m'lady Kyne Wynn the Kind (AF), and m'lord Movius von Reitfurt (BH). King John commented, "Never anger a man with flying steel." Lord Wilhelm von Adlersheim recited an original poem written for the occasion entitled, "The Unbelted King." The King then offered a heartfelt "Thank you!" to the people of Artemisia. Court then recessed.

A sideboard buffet was available to all, in the next building. It included ham, smoked turkey, assorted cheeses and breads, apples, almonds, blond raisins, dates, and dried apricots.

Following this, space was cleared and a tourney to determine the Royal Rapier Champion was held. Rapier is newer to many in the SCA than other forms of combat, and thus less understood. One gentle when asked how the tourney was going replied, "Lots of men are falling down." It appeared exciting, however. The final bout went 9 rounds, and included contests with rapier and dagger, cloak and rapier, and florentine rapiers, among other styles. The winner was Christian de Launey (LS).

After a dinner break, Court resumed. Christian de Launey was proclaimed Royal Rapier Champion and received a scroll. Her Royal Highness Katerina again appealed for allies to aid Atenveldt against the Army of the Outlands. As an inducement, she presented King John with an Estrella tee-shirt. (These will be available at Estrella.) He replied, "We will meet you at the fields of Estrella." Emissaries from the West Kingdom brought gifts. Her Ladyship Mary Amanda presented music: a choir sang a song of hers, written as if Their Majesties were singing it to each other. Azir (AH) received an Award of Arms. Baron Colin Tyndale (GL) made a plea for more folk to join the Artemisian Chirurgeon's Guild. (So far there are only 2 members.) Lady Petronilla of Argyll (TL) is the volunteer autocrat for water-bearers for Estrella and asked for volunteers. Lady Kortland Stirland Mayfaire, as Deputy Kingdom M.O.A.S., announced that she is in charge of the first Arts & Sciences issue of the _Sage Advice_, to be called "Maple," and due to be published the end of April. March 1st is the deadline for contributions; she hopes you will. Send articles to her (add. in _Sage_) Her Ladyship Iduna Snorradottir (SEK) had an announcement read pleading for updated directory info. She can only maintain our Kingdom _Directory_ if all branches continue to send her updates, preferably on a monthly basis. Her address (she prefers e-mail) is in the list of Officers in the _Sage_, and also in the _Directory_, of which every branch has at least one copy. Every branch should have someone in charge of maintaining directory info.; this may be your Chronicler, Seneschal, Historian, or another person. Iduna was then totally surprised to be asked by King John if she would accept the Order of the Pelican from his hand at Sentinels' Keep's A&S event, Jan. 31. She said yes, and will hold a vigil that day. Lord Balin Michael Guiscard was asked if he would accept Knighthood. He accepted, and held his vigil that night. It was announced that 160 Artemisian tee-shirts were sold that day, for the Kingdom fundraiser. Court concluded with the singing of Mary Amanda's "Artemisian Fight Song" (words had been distributed among the populace). Many folk joined in the dancing following Court that evening.

Court resumed Sunday morning. Baroness Elizabeth thanked all those who had helped with Saturday's luncheon. A knighting ceremony was held for Squire Balin. He was brought forward, wearing white. Lord Fian ap Maddyn (SEK) brought a pitchur and basin for the ritual cleansing "bath." Queen Alyna belted him with his white belt. Earl Alan affixed spurs, from Balin's first Knight, Sir Lyonel Oliver Grace. He was then asked to swear a sword oath, received his knight's chain, and was dubbed Knight. Following the reading of his knighthood scroll, the King dealt him his final unanswered blow. Throughout both days, Kingdom Law was read for any who wished to hear, as required. Court then closed, to be followed by both the King's Champion and the Queen's Champion lists.

The King's Champion Tourney was a 5-weapon tourney, for belted fighters only, and the winner was Baron Sir Basil von Dracke. Sir Decker was his final opponent. The Queen's Champion Tourney was for unbelted fighters and was won by Lord Conrad von Zuberbuhler. Selected as the bearer of the Shield of Chivalry was Lord Tearlach MacMillan (BH), who also placed second in the Queen's Tourney.

Throughout both days Herald's Point was maintained; a number of merchants with a variety of wares were also present. Finally all departed on their snowy ways home. -- Iduna Snorradottir, Ladyship

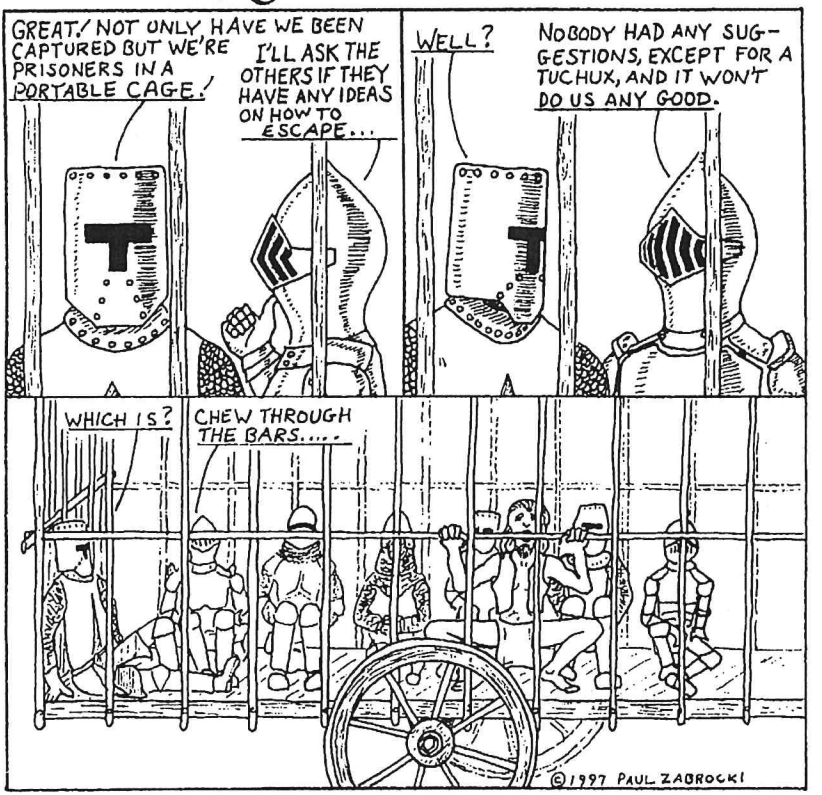
Daze + Knights™ By Master Pawel of Gdansk



GREAT! NOT ONLY HAVE WE BEEN CAPTURED BUT WE'RE PRISONERS IN A PORTABLE CAGE!
I'LL ASK THE OTHERS IF THEY HAVE ANY IDEAS ON HOW TO ESCAPE...
WELL?
NOBODY HAD ANY SUGGESTIONS, EXCEPT FOR A TUCHUX, AND IT WON'T DO US ANY GOOD.
WHICH IS?
CHEW THROUGH THE BARS.....

MARCH MUSTER AND REVEL!!!!

March 21, 1998 Boise, ID

Barony of Arn Hold

Sponsored by Arn Hold's own Mounted Guard. This is a War College for Knights, Fencers, Equestrians and Archers. Special awards will be presented to the most improved youth participant in each discipline. Muster begins at 11 am. Emphasis, in the equestrian discipline, will be on qualifying riders, their mounts, and the making of Artemisia's premier squadron of Equestrian Marshals. Minors must wear correct helmets and boots.

Coursing begins at noon.

For those who wish to participate in an equestrian event, but alas, are a little shy of a horse, do not despair!
